

Adopted by Albany School Board
November 12, 1997

JE

Student Attendance Policy

The Albany School Board pays tuition for its students to attend public school in Conway. The board expects all students to be in regular attendance.

The School Board expects monthly attendance reports from the schools regarding Albany students. Students who are absent more than five days in a month, or who are placed on attendance contracts by the schools, and their parents will be directed to appear before the School Board at its next scheduled meeting to explain excessive absences.