PROVISION OF SPECIAL EDUCATION SERVICES FOR TUITION STUDENTS IN THE CONWAY SCHOOL DISTRICT

It is the Conway School District's policy to provide a free and appropriate education to all students tuitioned to the Conway schools within the limits of existing education programs.

Should it be determined by a Conway school's Pupil Evaluation and Placement Team that a tuition student requires a special education program and/or related services beyond what is provided by existing programs, the financial responsibility for the provision of said program or services lies with the student's district of residence. The Special Education Director from the sending town will be invited to participate in the IEP meeting and shall have equal input.

The district of residence's financial responsibility includes, but is not limited to, transportation, tuition, and diagnostic cost.
