

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

PHOTOS AND PORTRAITS:

All photos and portraits shall be of the student with a traditional indoor or outdoor background. Props, instruments, pets, athletic equipment, hobby items, or vehicles shall be allowed in the photographs with approval of the publication team responsible for the publication(s). Clothing shall be modest and free of slogans and/or political expressions and such clothing shall be in conformance with the School District's dress code.

ADVERTISEMENTS:

All publications produced with district funds represent the Conway School District schools and do not constitute a public forum. Accordingly, any advertisements must be free of political expression and reflect the common values of the Conway School District. Advertisements shall not promote the use of tobacco, alcohol, drugs or the use of other items prohibited from use on school grounds.

NARRATIVES AND CAPTIONS:

All text and messages shall be free of personal attacks, abusive language, racial epithets, vulgar comments, sexual innuendo, and all other speech that is inconsistent with the shared community values of the Conway School District.

PUBLICATION REVIEW PROCESS:

The committee/team/group charged with designing a publication will establish a process for reviewing and editing the publication. The committee/team/group's decision to include or exclude any submittal will be based on their best judgment on behalf of the Conway School District schools.
