

INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

The Jackson School Board is legally responsible to approve and to provide the necessary instructional materials used in the Jackson School District. Online materials, print materials, manipulatives, equipment, and instructional technologies will be used to provide quality learning experiences for students that:

Enrich and support the curriculum;

Stimulate growth in knowledge, literary appreciation, aesthetic value, and ethical standards;

Provide background information to enable students to make intelligent judgments;

Present opposing sides of controversial issues;

Be representative of the many religious, ethnic, and cultural groups and their contributions to our American heritage;

Depict in an accurate and unbiased way the cultural diversity and pluralistic nature of the American society, and

Be matched to the appropriate skill levels of pupils.

Adopted by Jackson School Board – August 21, 2006

Procedure

Basic instructional course material in the areas of language arts, mathematics, science, and social studies should be reviewed at intervals not exceeding five (5) years.

The Principal will establish the instructional review processes in their buildings and identify the staff responsible for the review.

The review team will work in collaboration with the LEIP Curriculum Development team and calendar as determined by the LEIP Committee, recommended by the Superintendent and approved by the Board.

The criteria for Instructional Review Team participation, the tasks and the expectations will be included in the staff handbook for each building.

A LEIP report will be provided to the Jackson School Board to review and approve.
